

To whom it may concern

The main reason that I went to XM radio, because it was way to much useless babbling on local AM and FM radio. If I went to listen to music I would have sit thru 2-3 minutes of commerical before they started playing music. I am a paying customer for XM radio its my money so what gives you the right to attempt to tell me what information is delivered to me.

Thanks